Dear Rob

Sale of Crusader Wills

Thank you for acting for us in the sale of the above, which you brought to a conclusion for us at the full asking price after a number of months on the market.

You achieved a very satisfactory number of enquiries which translated into firm offers from such diverse operations as a Trust Corporation, a private Will writing company, a national Will writing conglomerate, and 2 separate private investors. In addition, a national Building Society expressed interest and came to visit us.

We received contracts from 3 of the above parties and finally, as you know, the business was sold to a newcomer to this industry after completion of full legal, operational and accounting due diligence.

We write therefore to thank you for all of your assistance and would not hesitate to recommend your personal service to others seeking to dispose of their business in like fashion.

Yours sincerely,

John
