Dear Mr Sweeney,

Just to say a very big thank you for the quick and professional way the sale of my business was handled, your continuous advise and help was magnificent and I must say that I really can recommend your service to any one wishing to sell their business.

It was very hard for me to come to the decision to sell after 35 years of trading and of the second generation, so after much sadness knowing that ill health was the major factor I decided to engage two companies from the Sunday Times advertisements.

The first agent which came asked me to take out adverts in their magazine and pay a fee up front which I was considering, I explained my intention to see one other company before making up my mind of whom I mentioned the name.

I was told that I would not receive good service from the other company being Turner Butler and co, but never the less I still met with Mr Sweeney whom I told about my concerns due to the rival's comments.

He responded by praising the other company's director who was a past employee of his and said they are a good business and spoke very highly of them and did not dwell any further or have any negative response.

Mr Sweeney explained about what he could do and how he would go about the marketing of my business also regarding his fees they would only be required after any sale.

He valued the business at 25% more than I had expected and explained how he vets all applicants to save time wasters which I know is an important factor.

I engaged his services in February 2005 and he contacted me a week later and I met with two potential purchasers the second one came in after two weeks and agreed to buy it there and then which proceeded to a sale.

Mr Sweeney kept in touch with both the purchaser and myself continually always polite and friendly even on one occasion he returned my call from abroad I never had any problems in reaching him.

Turner Butler and co is run by Mr. Sweeney which makes it a very professional company I can honestly say it was a pleasure to deal with them, any doubts should be set aside if you really wish to sell for the best price with no worry associated with it.
